Addiko Bank is the winner of three highly rated 'FocusEconomics' awards

Addiko Group's Economic Research has received three international awards 'FocusEconomics Analyst Forecast Awards 2018' in the categories 'Best Overall Forecaster – Slovenia', 'Best Fiscal Balance Forecaster – Slovenia' and 'Best Overall Forecaster – Serbia'.

FocusEconomics Awards recognize the most accurate forecasters for the main macroeconomic indicators in 87 countries and for 23 commodity prices across in the following categories: 'Best Overall Forecasters', 'Best GDP Forecasters', 'Best Fiscal Balance Forecasters', 'Best Inflation Forecasters', 'Best Interest Rate Forecasters', 'Best Exchange Rate Forecasters' and 'Best Current Account Forecasters'.

Addiko Bank's award-winning Economic Research provides clients with macroeconomic analysis, valuable market insights and opinion on developments in South-East European markets, and has received several globally renowned forecast accuracy awards for Croatia, Serbia and Slovenia and Serbia in 2014-2017 period.

„The latest international forecast accuracy awards confirm Addiko's reputation as of one of the most reliable economic forecasters in the SEE. However, the most important thing is that Addiko Bank provides provide added value to our clients that benefits their strategic decision making and business planning process, as well as their daily operations", stated Hrvoje Stojic, Addiko Group Economic Research Director.